LAST DAY! Student Council is doing their annual Lav-Out fundraiser! (Lavender being the ribbon color for all cancer...) This year, the beneficiaries are near and dear to the North High family. Mrs. Franks and Mrs Todd's husbands are currently fighting Cancer. T-shirts will be available for $15 through the online store and there are child sizes available! Students have received an email link to order these shirts. Orders are taken through April 26th. All proceeds will go to the Franks and Todd families.

“Do you like to sing pop songs in the car with your friends? Do you like making the Tik-Tok dance videos? Do you like sports and competition? Then come join Omaha North’s premier show choir Explosion! The group travels all around Nebraska competing and performing. It’s a class that meets B6 and counts as a PE credit. Auditions are next Monday and Tuesday after school. That is May 3rd and May 4th. You must be present both days. Email or see Mr. McCauley in room 124 for more information!”

Prom: This week is the final push for PROM for Juniors and Seniors – if you want to go, we have to get you to scan the QR Code by Friday this week. Tickets will be distributed the week of Prom. So far, our head count is 225 students. It’s Hallways – Admin are putting in the steps, to help students put in the time. Excellence at North High can only be achieved if you are in your classes. Expect adults to check your passes. Expect adults to assign consequences if you’ve been out of class for more than 10 minutes. If you’re a frequent hallway cruiser, expect to get on the Walters bus to SSC or home for a consultation with parents. North High is the place2be, and the place2be is in class, just like 97% of our Vikings do every single day.

There are

22 days of school left, that means that 11 A Days, and 11 B Days remain.

Wellness Wednesday Tip, brought to you by the wellness committee. Today we encourage you to be active in some way during your day. Actively participating in PE, staying active before and after school, and getting to class on time are all ways to stretch those legs, stay in shape, and be all that you can be. Check your email for encouragement and a program for today to encourage students to stay active and involved and pledge your support to the Special Olympics.

Sunday, Omaha North is hosting yet another Vaccination clinic for young adults and their parents. Students 16 and older are eligible and your parents. Appointments are being taken by the Douglas County Health Department, or you can just walk up. See Dr. Walters if there are questions.
