- Krunktastic 90's slang Throwback Thursday –
  - Boo-yah! When it comes to 90's phrases, nothing expresses joy quite like the word Boo-yah! Example: "Boo-yah, I just aced my final in Algebra after studying hard!" yourdictionary.com and Mr. Renfro.
- Supply Return for Semester 1 happens today and tomorrow. In-person learners please bring your supplies on Wednesday and Thursday, and remote learners, please bring any supplies to the MPC tomorrow during the school day. Staff will sort your materials by teachers. Look for communication from your teachers.
- North High 10 Days of Cheer: Tweet out your photo and tag North on Twitter, or send them to Mrs. Jackson, Curriculum Specialist.
  - Thursday – Flannel/Fleece Day
  - Friday – Cozy Pajamas Day
- Wellness Committee at North reminds you to make the best food choices you can over the break. If you can't source where it comes from or pronounce the ingredients, you should limit the intake of this type of food. As an example, an apple comes from a tree, or chicken comes from chicken. However, Sour Patch, though delicious, contain Glyceryl Monostearate...what is that? Source your food, and do your best to eat healthy for a long and healthy life! - Fun Fact Friday:
  - Breakdancing became an official Olympic sport on Monday. The International Olympic Committee's pursuit of urban events to lure a younger audience saw street dance battles officially added to the medal events program at the 2024 Paris Games – Sidebar: Mr. Jackson: Not anymore, but I was one of the Minneapolis Body Breakers and an authentic B-Boy in the 80's. Taggin, breakin, boom box, cardboard, shelltoe with fat laces, the whole 9!
  - The hashtag symbol is technically called an octothorpe. According to the Merriam-Webster dictionary, the "octo-"prefix refers to the eight points on the popular symbol, but the "thorpe" remains a mystery. One theory claims that it comes from the Old English word for "village," based on the idea that the symbol looks like a village surrounded by eight fields!
  - The Spotify track with the most streams in a day is 24 years old. Just in November, Mariah Carey's "All I Want for Christmas Is You" set the Guinness World Record for the most-streamed track on Spotify in 24 hours — more than two decades after the 1994 holiday hit's release.
- Supply Return for Semester 1 concludes today.
- MTSSB Perfect Attendance Lottery! Yellow L-Z:
  - Freshman: Brayden Vaughn
  - Sophomore: Ciara Mercer
  - Junior: Davion Scott-Bell
  - Senior: Kaylee Samland
