The mission of Omaha North High Magnet School is to prepare all students for success in life-long studies and careers.

North orchestra students joining with UNO Heartland Philharmonic

Every year the NCWIT Aspirations award is given to outstanding women in computing. Grace Erixon (left) was selected as a national runner-up and all three girls (Grace, Kamryn Pullen and Anna Kay Sitzman) were selected as Nebraska & Southwest Iowa regional award winners.

CONGRATULATIONS LADIES!!!

Helpful Guidance From the Nurses Office

Please follow the guidelines below when your student is ill so that the remainder of the student’s at school are not exposed to illness as well.

Vomiting

Students with no history of chronic vomiting, who vomit at school, will be sent home the day that this happens. It is recommended that the student remain home for 24 hours.

Fever

Students with a temperature 100 or higher will be sent home to avoid the potential spread of the virus or bacteria causing the illness. Students are to remain home the remainder of the day. It is best if the student remain home for 24 hours but, may return if they have been fever free without fever reducing medication.

Strep Throat

Students who have been clinically diagnosed with strep throat and are being treated with antibiotics are to remain home for 24 hours to avoid the spread of the illness. They may return to school 24 hours after the start of the medication.

Ringworm

Students with ringworm are to cover the affected areas during the school day. If the affected skin can not be covered, the student should remain home while the initial treatment is being started (24 hours).

Bacterial Infections of the Eyes

Student with bacterial infections of the eyes may have think white or yellow drainage, itching eyes, redness of the white part of the eye. These students will be sent home until proof of treatment (written notes from the doctor) have been received.

ALL JUNIORS WILL TAKE THE ACT ON APRIL 19TH

This will be a Junior only day. Juniors have been given log in information to access practice tests to prepare for the ACT.

If you are interested in looking at the ACT practice test, please go to www.act.org and search “Test Prep”.

More info coming in a robo call soon.

Below are the participants from this year’s Golden Vikings dance team kiddie camp. They learned a dance under the direction of Lakresha Clark and performed at the varsity basketball game that evening.
