Lori James Bryant, M.D., Class of 1991, Cincinnati, OH

Dr. Lori Bryant is a Pediatrician/Director of Medical Informatics at Hyde Park Pediatrics in Cincinnati, Ohio. She holds degrees from Creighton University, Harvard University and Case Western Reserve College of Medicine. Her love for science, technology and serving others has been the inspiration for her success. She continues to be a career mentor in her community and beyond and a guest speaker at many events.

Tim Croshaw, Class of 1995, Los Angeles, CA

Tim is a Senior Set Designer who has played an integral part in collaborating on movies for the Marvel Cinematic Universe and numerous other film studios. He has also done set designs for many television series in major studios in Los Angeles, California. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and Florida State University. His great collaboration skills and background in technology and art are key to what make Tim a highly successful Set Designer.

Robert M. Nelson, Class of 1962, Omaha, NE

Bob is managing partner of Nelson Murphy Insurance & Investments. He is a national leader in the Insurance and Financial Advising business and a featured speaker in all 50 States. He was a commissioned Naval Intelligence Officer in the 1960’s, and continued to serve in the Navy Reserves retiring as a Captain in 1994. Bob was instrumental in setting up Omaha’s First Responders Foundation and serving on their Executive Committee. His life work has made him a highly respected businessman and community leader.

Phyllis Jones Watson, Class of 1976, Mitchellville, MD

Phyllis’s undergraduate degree from Creighton University and her Law degree from the Creighton University School of Law led her to a more than 24 year career with The Federal Bureau of Investigation as a Special Agent, Supervisory Special Agent and Unit Chief. She is also an Adjunct/ Associate Professor at the University of Maryland’s College of Business and Professional Programs, Criminal Justice/Legal Studies. She serves as a mentor to others and a highly regarded conference speaker.

Lee, “Doc” Kallstrom, Ph.D. Former Teacher, 1989-2015, Omaha, NE

Doc Kallstrom was the leader of North’s Engineering Department and taught classes in design, technology, global studies in science and technology, civil engineering and architecture management. He and his students were instrumental in the development of the first renderings and the proposal to the OPS School Board of what is now North’s Engineering Building, the Haddix Center. Doc Kallstrom and those students received the VOD Vision Award in 2011 for their efforts. He received the Alice Buffett Outstanding Teacher Award in 2012.
Scott Lee Bostwick, Class of 1979
1961-2011

Scott attended UNK and then transferred to Nebraska Wesleyan University to receive a football scholarship. Upon graduation, he was asked to be Wesleyan’s Defensive Coordinator and then held the same position at Western Washington University and Northwest Missouri State University where after 13 years, he became the Head Football Coach. Through his outstanding coaching and enthusiasm, he helped develop the top NCAA Division II football program. The Northwest Missouri football dynasty had two National Championships during Scott’s tenure. He was named the Division II Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007. Scott was inducted into the Nebraska Wesleyan and the NW Missouri State University’s Halls of Fame. Coach Bostwick died unexpectedly on June 5, 2011. His memory lives on in those he coached, those he loved and so many who loved and admired him.